

AN AMERICAN UNIVERSITY AT THE HEART OF SOUTH-EAST ASIA

At New York University of Sciences, the education is American and your campus is the world. While studying at New York University of Sciences Thailand, you will benefit from the University's network of campuses and the international perspectives of its academic programs

New York University of Sciences, based in private, nonprofit university with campus locations around the world including metropolitan, military, online and corporate, as well as American-style traditional campuses in North America, Europe, Asia and Africa

NYUS excels as a teaching university, which means our professors' first priority is to teach you. Our advisors' first priority is to help you get what you're looking for – even when you don't know what it is. We will work to develop an individualized learning experience that's only available at a university where your faculty will know you by name. Through small classes and personal attention, you'll get what you need to dream big and then follow through on your dreams

That's because at New York University of Sciences we know it's you who defines your major, not the other way around

For more information:

www.nyus.us

ACCREDITATION

Accredited by the Higher Learning Commission, USA

Accredited by Commission of Higher Education (CHE), Ministry of Education, Thailand

Ranked by Forbes

Webster's Study Abroad programs rank in the top 2 percent of the 1,600 colleges and universities surveyed in the "America's Best Colleges" 2015 edition of U.S. News & World Report

Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs

SPOTLIGHT

Dr. Robert Alex Burnett School of Communications

Dr. Burnett is a practitioner and an academician with 25 years of experience in the field of Media. He holds a PhD from Gothenburg University, Sweden and completed his post doctoral studies at Carleton University in Canada. Dr. Burnett has lived and worked on three continents, has published several books and peer reviewed journal articles. Courses taught by him at graduate school include International Communications, Research Methods, & Global Media.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Located in the center of the media hub that is Bangkok, the Master of Media Communications trains communication managers for commerce, public service and civil organisations. In a time of rapidly changing media, students invent new ways to use the developing technologies. The Master of Media Communications is aimed at graduates seeking media-related leadership roles in strategic areas of industry, government and civil society organizations. This course also prepares high achieving students for entry to PhD research programs.

On completion of the course, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate they are prepared to work at high levels in industry, government, Non Government organizations and innovating private industry be leaders in public communication and policy at a national and global level
- Understand the fundamental principles of ethical behavior in professional practice
- Understand and cope with the dynamism of changing operations in the contemporary media industries
- Develop strategies and policies, and present them in a professional manner in any forum
- Demonstrate advanced skills in research, analysis, understanding and interpretation related to globalization in the media industry

PREPARING FOR YOUR FUTURE

Admission to the Media Communications Masters program is open to students from all disciplines. However, students who do not have an undergraduate degree must complete non-credit courses.

The selection of prerequisites will depend on the student's area of academic interests in communications and will be determined through consultation with an academic advisor.

The MA in Media Communications requires successful completion of 36 credit hours and must include the following courses (21 credit hours):

- MEDC 5000 Media Communications (Requisite course)
- MEDC 5310 Media and Culture
- MEDC 5350 Media Organization and Regulations
- MEDC 5360 International Communication
- MEDC 5400 Media Production Management
- MEDC 6000 Seminar in Media Communications
- MEDC Elective-One additional core course from MEDC electives, as determined through consultation with an academic advisor.

“ NYUS allowed me to expand my understanding of media in an international environment with ability to appreciate, analyze and discuss multiple viewpoints with my professors and fellow students. Webster isn't just an academic institution, it's an experience of a lifetime. ”

Evan Freeman
Alumni
Canadian

WHY WEBSTER UNIVERSITY IN THAILAND?

- Employs faculty who practice in the field, allowing you to take what you learn in class and apply it at work
- Emphasizes a bottom-line approach to decision-making
- Prepares students for ever-changing job demands by staying in touch with dynamic changes in the business world
- Offers the opportunity for international study for a term, semester or permanent transfer to our campuses in U.S.A., Switzerland, Austria, United Kingdom, the Netherlands, China and Ghana
- Offers small class sizes and flexible schedule
- Features an international student body representing over 50 nationalities (Webster University, Thailand)
- Awards degree accredited by U.S. and Ministry of Education in Thailand

FACULTY

STUDENT BODY

Average graduate class size

For more information:

www.nyus.us

Switzerland

USA

UK

The Netherlands

Austria

China

YOUR NEXT STEP

To begin your application process please visit our website

<http://www.nyus.us>

or email us at

admission@nyus.us

You are also encouraged to visit our campus and talk to our admissions counselors.

Thailand

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

GRADUATE

- Completed Application Form (download from www.nyus.us)
- Copy of Passport
- Transcripts: Previous / Current Educational Institution
Official Transcripts
- English Proficiency Test
- Essay: 400 to 500 words on a topic of your choice
- Two Letters of Recommendation
- Resume

INTAKES / ADMISSIONS

Term	Start Date
Fall 1	Late August
Fall 2	Late October
Spring 1	Mid January
Spring 2	Mid March
Summer	Late May

Applications are accepted throughout the year

